

home additions

These beautifully crafted vessels will enhance any interior

PRODUCED BY LIZ MAJOR
PHOTOGRAPHY BY LIESA COLE

2

3

5

4

1 Hole in One

Tuck Klein Reid's C-Thru Oval Bud Vase ($72) into any corner of a bookcase and add a hot-pink phalaenopsis orchid to make a statement.
www.kleinreid.com

2 Three of a Kind

The wheel-thrown Cold Mountain Series from Middle Kingdom Porcelain (shown here in Dark Blue, Chocolate Brown, and Tortoise Shell, each $45) are perfect for larger nooks around the house with arrangements of Leucadendron and grasses, pincushion protea, or a handful of wheat.
www.middlekingdomporcelain.com

3 A Rosy Pair

Caroline Reehl's handmade Robin's Egg Blue Blush Brush Bottle ($200) and Robin's Egg Blue Lela Vase ($250) are even more exquisite with hanging amaranthus and a few deep-red calla lilies spilling over the sides.
www.carolinereehl.com
at Mulberry Heights Antiques
205.870.1300

4 It's a Fine Line

Jayson Home & Garden's Grey Oil Jars ($12 - $24, depending on size) fit in any room when filled with yellow sunflowers or petal-less red sunflowers.
www.jaysonhomeandgarden.com

5 Give Me One Good Resin

Made of resin in a small cylindrical shape, Tina Frey's Vince Bud Vase ($40) is an ideal container to stick on top of a shelf with scabiosa pods.
www.tinafreydesigns.com
at www.shophome.com

6 En Pointe

Unusual shapes call for inventive arrangements, such as this oncidium orchid "planted" into Whitney Smith's Emerald Green Sprout Vase ($125).
www.whitneysmithpottery.com

1

2

3

2

4

6